

APPENDIX G – BUY CANADIAN ATTESTATION FORMS

Supplier Eligibility Attestation Form

The Proponent, _____, is a Canadian supplier, as defined in the Policy on Prioritizing Canadian Suppliers and Canadian Content in Strategic Federal Procurement.

By signing this attestation, the Proponent acknowledges, agrees, and attests to the following:

- ☐ The Proponent attests that they will remain in full compliance with the statements made in this attestation throughout the tender period and throughout the duration of any resulting contract.
- ☐ The Proponent attests that evidence supporting their eligibility is available and agrees to provide any supporting documentation requested for verification purposes, at any time, including during reviews, in response to complaints, or after contract award.
- ☐ The Proponent acknowledges that the contracting authority may, based on supporting evidence and consideration of all relevant facts and circumstances, determine that the Proponent does not meet the definition of a Canadian supplier for the purposes of the Policy.
- ☐ The Proponent acknowledges that the discovery of false or misleading information, or failure to provide requested evidence, may result in contractual remedies including, but not limited to:
 - Proposal disqualification;
 - Liquidated damages;
 - Ineligibility for contract award;
 - Retention of deposits or holdbacks;
 - Termination of contract, setting aside of Master Framework Agreements;
 - Disqualification under the Ineligibility and Suspension Policy.
