- A copy of the identity card of the Belgian or a copy of the residence permit of the foreigner (Card A, B, C, D, F, F+ or H).

Sufficient accommodation

- Proof that the party being joined has sufficient accommodation.

This evidence can be done either, by a copy of the property's title assigned to his principal residence housing, or by a copy of a registered lease contract concerning housing assigned to his principal residence. Preferably, this document should be accompanied by an inventory of fixture (between landlord and tenant) of the leased property.

Solvency of the person to be joined

- Proof that the person being joined has stable, regular and sufficient means of subsistence during the last 12 months to meet his own needs and those of the members of his family and avoid them becoming a burden on the public authorities.

Mutual Insurance Company

- Proof that the person to be joined is affiliated to a Mutual Insurance Company (Mutualiteit / Mutualité) covering the risks for himself/herself

NOTE

Applicants, who cannot enclose all documents from the list, should consider adding alternatives or making an explanation about the reason for not handing them in.

Our Consulate may in justified individual cases, request additional documents during the examination of an application which are not mentioned in the above harmonized list. The applicant is hereby informed that submitting the above-mentioned documents does not guarantee automatic issuance of a visa.

The documents drawn up abroad in a language other than Dutch, French or German are to be translated in accordance with the original by a sworn translator. The translation must be legalized as a separate document in line with the procedure laid down in the country of origin, and then by the competent Belgian consulate or Embassy.

Egyptian notarized certificates have to be authenticated by the relevant Foreign Affairs Bureau of your province before being authenticated by the Embassy / Consulate General of Belgium. They should not be older than six months.
